FILIPPO GIORDANO

PhD, MMus, RMT, EAMI (Italy), University of Bari,
Conservatory of Music "A. Casella" L'Aquila (Italy)

SHORT BIO

Filippo Giordano is a music therapist, researcher, and lecturer based in Italy.

He is Professor of Applied Music Therapy and PhD candidate at the University of Bari. His clinical and research work focuses on medical music therapy in pediatric oncology, procedural support, pain management, and palliative care, with numerous publications in international medical journals.